

A free community information session

Thinking of Downsizing?

If you are an older adult thinking of downsizing, then join us and discover answers to important questions you may have, such as: What is the best housing option for me as I age? When should I move? Can I afford to move? How will I “let go” of all my stuff? ...and more

Monday, February 25, 2019

7:00PM – 8:30PM

Rideau Park United Church. Beecroft Room.
2203 Alta Vista Drive. Free Parking.

OR

Wednesday, February 27, 2019

10:00AM – 11:30AM

Alta Vista Public Library. Program Room.
2516 Alta Vista Drive. Free Parking.

All welcome. Registration requested. Refreshments.
info@agewellsolutions.ca / 613.277.6449
www.agewellsolutions.ca

PLUS...Special guest, Kelvin Holmes, Royal LePage Team Realty on today's real estate market.

“Jennifer and her team helped my wife and I downsize, relocate and readjust. Her professional, courteous, efficient, and most important, caring attention to our needs was instrumental in our successful move into our new home.”

Tom Wileman

You can look forward to this informal and discussion-based information session with Senior Housing Specialist, Jennifer Moir. She will share information, client stories, key insights and tips on how to plan for a successful downsize and lifestyle transition.

